

MR. ROGERS, EXAM. BY MR. MERRICK

1 And for a layman, like myself, I found it quite
2 impressive, but at least I settled my sense that the
3 documentation was extensive and appropriate, from a
4 layman's point of view.

5 Q. Do you recall if that would have included studies by 6 Kilborn?

7 A. Yes.

8 Q. All right. And do you know if you understood that 9 to be, or if it was represented to be, essentially all of 10 the sort of feasibility studies that had been accumulated
11 up to date?

12 A. Yes. My memory is they went back over a period of 13 years not -- you know, right back to Placer and Suncor,
14 brought forward into the Kilborn studies. There was 15 things, I think, in there by AMCL as well. There were 16 quite a large array of studies.

17 Q. In your experience, not only in government service,
18 but also in your private industry experience, had you had
19 much opportunity or experience in assessing projects?

20 A. Yes.

21 Q. Significant ones of some technical detail and
22 financial consequences?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. I take it that you understood from the Westray
25 proposal, or that it would be fairly easy to determine,
