

MR. ROGERS, EXAM. BY MR. HEBERT

1 contribution agreement --

2 Q. Certainly, but can you give us specific examples,
3 for example, here in Nova Scotia? Would you be aware of 4 any projects?

5 A. Well, I suppose, most or a great number of the 6 projects that were undertaken under the Atlantic Canada
7 action program or --

8 Q. Yes.

9 A. -- and all its successors would be examples of 10 those.

11 Q. All right. And what would those generally involve?

12 A. Well, as I mentioned yesterday, the funds would be -
13 - would be approved and they would -- the reimbursement
14 to whoever was undertaking the project would be subject
15 to a stringent documentation on what they had spent, and
16 that what they had spent was on things that were eligible
17 expenses --

18 Q. Right.

19 A. -- and that the project was proceeding in accordance 20 with the plan.

21 Q. All right.

22 A. That is why we have program officers in many -- or 23 used to have --

24 Q. Fair --

25 A. -- in programs.
