

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. HEBERT

1 A. It was there. And we were guaranteed and the
2 contract was in place, and you can't twist and turn it.

3 Q. Well, that's somewhat different than your evidence
4 from yesterday. Mr. Cameron --

5 MR. ENDRES How is that? Can he explain that? I
6 don't understand what's so different.

7 MR. HEBERT Well, yesterday --

8 COMMISSIONER That's a comment, Mr. Endres.

9 MR. ENDRES Okay.

10 COMMISSIONER I will take it in the normal course.

11 MR. ENDRES Thank you.

12 MR. HEBERT Time is running, Mr. -- just one more
13 area. With respect to the -- Mr. Cameron, you come in 14 here and in your opening statement you made the comment
15 that the cause of the explosion is to be found on the 16 actions of the miners, basically, in the mine on the 17 morning of May the 9th. That's your -- that was the 18 statement that you made?

19 A. Well, not exactly like that, but what I said was the 20 explosion was caused by what was going on in the mine at 21 that time.

22 Q. All right.

23 A. And I urge you to read Mick Franks' statement that
24 he gave to the RCMP and see what happened. That miner, a
25 few hours -- that continuous mining machine, 2002, a few
