

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. ROBERTS

1 Q. Now each one of the those individuals that I just
2 listed to you, sir, was either a miner, a supervisor or
3 an overman.

4 A. Uh-huh.

5 Q. And each one of them testified under oath here that
6 they never used the reset button and they never saw
7 anyone else use the reset button to cut coal in that
8 mine.

9 A. Uh-huh.

10 Q. Now you're not saying that they didn't tell the 11 truth under oath, are you?

12 A. No, I'm not -- I'm not passing judgement on them at 13 all. But could I make a comment about that,
14 Commissioner?

15 MR. ROBERTS I would rather you just answered the 16 question and --

17 A. Well, this is --

18 Q. -- and we go on.

19 A. -- this is an important issue.

20 COMMISSIONER Okay. Okay, well, go ahead, Mr. Cameron.

21 A. Well, it's a very important issue and this is the 22 interview that the Inquiry did with Mick Franks and 23 Harvey Martin.

24 COMMISSIONER Okay, that's in evidence.

25 MR. ROBERTS Now, Mr. Commissioner, I'm very familiar
